

MARTIN LUCHSINGER - Director

Luchi is a freethinker with his roots in SKATEBOARDING. He'd say; "To arouse the power of a thought, to combine numerous facets, to blend with drive and speed - those are the attributes which this subculture allows me to feed my movies with." Martin draws expressive vignettes and points out the unexpected. What started with snowboard movies became a vision which has recently been awarded with his first EDI in 2011 and an ADC cube in 2012.
