

YVES DE PRÀ – Director

Yves is a young Swiss director (1990) with roots in Northern Italy, who could easily have ended up as an architect. Only after he completed his BA-studies at the renowned ETH did he find his true passion was film. During his film studies at the Zurich University of the Arts he directed (and dop`d) several short movies that were screened on Swiss festivals and across the globe. Because of his empathy for topics and people of all kinds, he succeeds to generate a warm and pure atmosphere, some sparks of magic are not uncommon.

Apart from using his skills in storytelling for several documentary works for Swiss national television, Yves directs commercials and corporate films and always tries to put one thing in the center of attention that values most: Finding the true story and by doing so, getting closer to the essence of the human being.

yvesdepra.ch

