

Charley Stadler – Director

He is one of the most accomplished storytellers in the industry, and is a director known for pushing boundaries. His films have neatly encapsulated brand messages, and this can be seen throughout the 200+ commercials he has made for globally recognised organisations such as Microsoft, Heineken, Vodafone, McDonalds, Adidas, Ford, Garnier and Porsche.

His style and vision juxtapose dark matters in a light and highly entertaining manner. The exclusive London based creativity platform SHOTS has featured 12 of Charley's films in the past two and a half years. He also recently appeared on a list of the 50 top commercial directors of all time.

Charley has received over 100 international directing awards, including Cannes, Epica, ADC, Bessies, ICAD, Effie, London Int., Golden Drum, New York Festivals, and numerous gold medals throughout his career. Charley directed the 15 million dollar movie Dead Fish starring Gary Oldman and Robert Carlyle, and has also worked with Oscar winning actors Sir Sean Connery, Sharon Stone, and Cuba Gooding Jr.

Over the past few years he as well became known for directing Sports Celebrities (Fc Bayern Thomas Müller, Oliver Kahn and Marco Reuss) as well as other global VIP`s such as Pamela Anderson.

